

Juneteenth Family Day

The day will include live music from Lost Tribe, crafting, African drumming with Alvin Carter, Jr., storytelling by Andre Keitt, and Anne Cubberly's famous giant puppets. This event is for the entire family and will take place on the Alfred E. Burr Memorial Mall (also known as Burr Mall -- the space between the Wadsworth Atheneum and City Hall. Just look for the Stegosaurus sculpture). This event is in collaboration with the Wadsworth Atheneum and in partnership with the City of Hartford with special thanks to the Ella Burr McManus Trust.

Burr Mall - Between Wadsworth and City Hall, 600 Main Street, Hartford, CT 06103

11 Hempsted Street
New London, CT

Join Connecticut Landmarks to celebrate Juneteenth with the City of New London and highlight the African-American history of the Hempsted Houses and the surrounding New London neighborhood with our partners. The celebration will feature music, dance performances, and a dash of history, with activities and crafts for children. Speakers include Joseph McGill of the Slave Dwelling Project and Tammy Denease of the Connecticut Freedom Trail.

Supported in part by: New London NAACP, the Frank Loomis Palmer Fund, Bank of America, N.A., Trustee; the Community Foundation of Eastern Connecticut; and the Chelsea Groton Foundation, Inc.

Parking is limited. This is a "cash preferred event" and there are limited options for credit card use.

If you have any questions, please contact the Hempsted Houses at Hempsted@ctlandmarks.org.

A confirmation email with additional information will be sent to the email address used to purchase the tickets. By purchasing tickets to this event, you consent to receive email communications from Connecticut Landmarks. You can revoke your consent to receive marketing emails at any time by using the unsubscribe link found at the bottom of every email.

ABOUT THE EVENT

Community Day | Juneteenth 2022

Saturday, June 18, 2022

Come join the NBMAA's 21st Annual Juneteenth Celebration! Spanning the Museum's galleries and grounds, the celebration will include a full schedule of events, with drumming, dance, and poetry performances outdoors. Inside, tour the special exhibition, 30 Americans, and the Museum's permanent collection and make lasting memories through hands-on art activities and scavenger hunts. Shop local Black-owned businesses and grab a bite from regional food vendors.
